

WE'LL MEET AGAIN...

... AND WE KNOW WHERE. AND WE KNOW WHEN.

BELGRADE, 7-10 SEPTEMBER 2027

WE MET AT ECP
2025 IN PAPHOS.

WE MET AGAIN
AT ICAP 2026
IN FLORENCE.

AND NOW, WE
WILL MEET AGAIN

AT ECP 2027 IN BELGRADE

This time, we will meet in the historic heart of Belgrade—a part of the city that, like a rainbow, connects two rivers: the Sava and the Danube, and carries the traces of many cultures and civilizations that have shaped Belgrade. Perhaps there is no better place for us to meet than here. There is much to meet about.

About how technology is transforming the way we live, work, and interact with one another. About mental health, well-being, education, and human development. About diversity, inclusion, human rights, and social justice. About climate, sustainability, and the future of our communities. About the changing world of work and how psychology can help us navigate uncertainty and change.

In short, this is about psychology and the kind of future we want to build together.

ECP is a gathering place for everyone.

For those putting the finishing touches on their abstracts. For those curious about the future direction of psychology.

For those who wish to connect with the international psychological community. For those seeking new ideas, fresh perspectives, and opportunities for collaboration.

And for those who simply want to take a moment to pause, listen, learn, and absorb the latest developments in psychology.

Whether you come to present, to learn, to connect, or simply to be part of the conversation, there is a place for you in Belgrade. And we know how!

Submit your abstract starting in September 2026 to be part of the program.

Or simply catch the Early Sparrow, pack your bags, and join us in Belgrade.

Have you noticed?

The sparrows of all countries have already united.
